'Inner Turmoil', 2024
Plaster, polymer clay, wood, and acrylic

The Canberra Institute of Technology would like to thank the Ginninderry Community and Information Centre, and the LINK staff for their generous support of the CIT visual art students

Vibrant colours, intricate details, and unique perspectives, each artwork invites the viewer on a visual journey, and showcase the dedication, passion, and creativity of the next generation of artists.

Sales Enquiries

If you'd like to purchase an artwork, please first check that it is for sale and has not already been sold. Note down the details of the work, artist and title, then send an enquiry with your name and contact details to paul.murray@cit.edu.au Paul will contact the student and pass on the information.

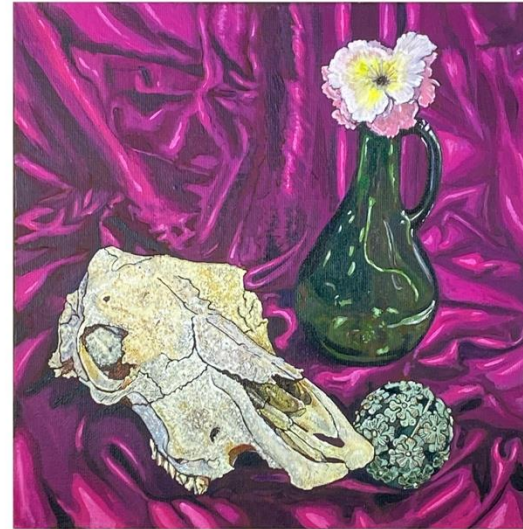

The student will contact the buyer and organise payment. When payment has been made a red 'sold' sticker will be placed on the wall against the work and recorded in the staff catalogue.

The transaction is between artist and buyer. CIT and Ginninderry Centre staff will not be able to take payments.

Works can be removed from the exhibition at 12 noon on Sunday 8th June
